

Summer School 2017

University Hall
St Andrews, Scotland
16 July – 13 August 2017

INTRODUCTION

Come and join us at the 2016 RSCDS Summer School, which will take place in the historic Fife town of St Andrews from 17 July to 14 August.

The four courses are as follows:-

Sunday 16 July - Sunday 23 July
Sunday 23 July - Sunday 30 July
Sunday 30 July - Sunday 6 August
Sunday 6 August - Sunday 13 August

You may attend for 1 week or for a maximum of any 2 weeks. We hope that each week will offer something special but, if you choose to attend for 2 weeks, there may be some duplication in content and staffing.

The town has much to offer the visitor and, with the University residences nearby, it is an ideal place to indulge your passion for Scottish country dancing. There are country dance classes every morning for all dancers and voluntary dance-related activities in the afternoons. There is social dancing, or other activities, every evening, with a ceilidh on Fridays. It is hoped that you will also find time to explore the town and the surrounding area - perhaps to visit "St Andrews Gardens" or "Fife Ness".

RESIDENCES

Summer School is based in University Hall, Kennedy Gardens. This is an historic building in its own attractive grounds near the University playing fields. The rooms are study bedrooms, either single or twin, many have wash-hand basins, but all other bathroom facilities are shared.

The RSCDS office, shop, shoe shops, dress shop and masseuse and most social functions are in University Hall.

There is a wonderful sense of camaraderie in University Hall. All meals are taken together (on a self-service basis). We provide a full Scottish breakfast and there is an excellent choice, including a salad bar, at both lunch and dinner. Most evening social dancing and other events take place in University Hall. There is also a party room and a games room available for informal gatherings but numbers are restricted.

Accommodation can also be booked in Agnes Blackadder Hall (formerly New Hall). All bedrooms have an en-suite shower, toilet and wash-hand basin. Most of the bedrooms have one double bed and can be occupied by one or two dancers. These rooms are compact when used for double occupancy and couples may prefer to have a room each. All rooms have a television. Agnes Blackadder Hall has a bar, spacious foyer and dining room, where breakfast is served. PLEASE NOTE that Agnes Blackadder Hall offers only B&B, all other meals will be eaten at University Hall.

Dancers who decide to reside in accommodation other than University Hall or Agnes Blackadder Hall will be considered to be NON-RESIDENT.

Other University accommodation can be booked directly through St Andrews University and there are a number of hotels, B&B and caravans available in or near the town.

FACILITIES

All university bedrooms have telephones, are serviced daily, are provided with towels and have complimentary toiletries. Coffee/tea-making facilities are available in nearby well equipped kitchens. Laundry facilities are also available in each residence operated by means of a card system. Internet access is available, although you will need to bring your own device.

Non-Residents have the opportunity to attend all classes and social events, having booked the accommodation of their choice. The Tourist Information Centre (01334 472021) can provide information on alternative/cheaper accommodation in the town.

Summer School is open to all dancers aged 12 years or over, and there are discounts available as indicated for members of the RSCDS and for full-time students under the age of 26. Dancers aged between 12 and 15 are invited to attend in week 3 but may attend in any other week and must be accompanied by a responsible adult.

Also in week 3 this year, we will be running Junior Summer School for children aged 8 – 11, from 9am – 1pm each day, offering a mixture of SCDS and craft activities.

Non-dancing partners may attend, but are not permitted to take part in any of the classes or social functions.

CLASSES

Classes for all levels of Scottish country dancing are held during the mornings of Monday to Saturday at various venues throughout St Andrews. All are within approximately 20 minutes' walking distance of University Hall. Please see the application form and class selector for the list of classes available and the qualifications for entry. This is a course of practical dancing and everyone is expected to actively participate in both morning classes for all six days. During the afternoons additional voluntary classes are offered. The examination courses will involve morning and afternoon classes. There are no classes on Sunday.

Please note that all classes are taught in English. If you have difficulty in understanding English you may prefer to choose a lower level class.

A Musicians' Course will be held during Weeks 1 & 3. The course in week 1 is designed to give accomplished musicians the skills to play for Scottish country dance CLASSES. Preference will be given to musicians who have not previously attended a similar course. Fees are the same as for dancers. Musicians participating in the course are welcome to attend all other events. Please contact HQ for further details and separate application form.

Although pipers are not part of this course, we encourage any pipers to bring their own pipes.

Classes leading to the RSCDS Teaching Certificates are offered over 2 weeks. The first course (for unit 5) is during weeks 1 & 2 and the second course (for units 2 & 3) is during weeks 3 & 4. A pass in Units 1, 2 & 3 or at Preliminary Test level is required for entry to the course for Unit 5. Classes will take place during both the morning and afternoon. The examination for Unit 2 will take place in the first week of the course and for Unit 3 in the second week of the course. Examination fees must be paid along with your residence fees.

If you wish to be part of one of these courses, please contact HQ to obtain the relevant syllabus, the latest edition of the Manual of Scottish country dancing and an application form.

If you require the services of a translator, please contact HQ for advice as soon as possible.

If there are insufficient dancers for any course, you may be asked to attend during alternative weeks.

CLASS STANDARDS

The class selector is designed to assist you in selecting the class most appropriate to your ability. It is for everyone's benefit that dancers are allocated to the most suitable class - everyone gets better enjoyment and progress can be smoother. Please think carefully before completing the application form. If you are in any doubt apply for a lower class. The Schools Director, Depute Directors and/or class teachers reserve the right to request you relocate to a more suitable class.

Please ensure that you are physically fit to attend your chosen class, remembering that, during one week, you will be required to participate actively in two classes each morning for six days.

If you are coming for the first time, it is helpful to seek advice from your local teacher. You will find the classes more enjoyable and be more comfortable if you choose a class which is appropriate for your standard of dancing and knowledge of the dances.

For qualified teachers and very advanced dancers who can no longer sustain a high level of performance or who have sustained an injury, we offer the low impact class. For this, you will have an in-depth knowledge, understanding and experience of the dance but may not be able to participate as fully as you would wish. A Social dancing skills class is offered in week 4 for those dancers who have not reached very advanced level and who do not hold the RSCDS Teaching Certificate, and who are unable to sustain the pace of a normal advanced class or who simply want to improve their social dancing skills. Please note this class content may include some social and party dances and some elements of technique. The Social Skills class will NOT teach the dances from the evening social dance programmes

There is further information on all classes in the class selector.

Be honest with yourself - Choose the most appropriate class

DRESS CODE

For classes ladies normally wear skirts or dresses and men wear a kilt or smart trousers. Smart casual wear is worn in the dining room.

SOCIAL DANCING

There is social dancing for all dancers attending Summer School on most evenings. This is held in University Hall and/or elsewhere. The programmes and crib sheets are available via the website before you arrive at St Andrews. There is a ceilidh each Friday evening in which you may wish to participate.

Every Thursday there are public dances in the Younger Hall. Tickets for these can be obtained only from RSCDS Headquarters (www.rscds.org) and you are encouraged to apply early. On these evenings there is social dancing in the Common Room at University Hall where an alternative programme of dances will be offered.

In week 3, parents or guardians must accompany children aged 8 – 15 to the social dances. Only dancers aged over 8 years may be on the dancefloor during social dancing.

Branches and Groups nearby also offer opportunities for social dancing during Summer School and details will be available at Summer School.

VOLUNTEERS

The smooth running of Summer School depends on the hard work put in by members of the office staff, the teachers and the musicians, and also the time and effort generously given by dancers. If you wish to help by, for example, assisting at registration, serving in the shop or selling raffle tickets, please tick the appropriate box on the application form.

It would be very much appreciated if EVERY dancer could give at least one hour to help make up the classes required for the practical teaching part of the examinations held at the end of week 2 and week 4. Some classes will be expected to do this as part of their morning tuition.
